

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, July 14. 1705.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated July 10.

Naples, June 9.

Yesterday the new Regiment of Don Gregorio d' Aquino went on Board some Tarantans, and to Day another Regiment embark'd likewise, to be transported to Barcelona, under Convoy of two Privateers, in one of which is the Prince of Petagna, whom the Council have banish'd to Melilla in Africa, for holding a Correspondence with the Enemies of the Crown. The other 6 new Regiments that are to be form'd out of the Militia of this Kingdom, will e'er long be compleat: The Cavalry that have been quarter'd in the Country some time, return'd hither Yesterday, and at the Instance of the Duke d' Atri Vicar General of the Abruzzo, some Troops of them are order'd to march to that Province.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated July 14.

Madrid, June 24. The King has conferr'd the Title of Marquis de Mianas, upon Don Thomas de Pomar, Councillor in the supreme Council of Aragon. His Majesty has given the Command of the Regiment, call'd the Yellow Regiment, to the Marquis of Torrecilla. Don Miguel Ladron de Guevara, is made Alcaide of the Court of Navarre. The Regiment of Spanish Guards commanded by the Count d' Aguilar, and that of the Flemish Guards commanded by the Duke d' Havre, are to return hither, to attend the King's Person as his ordinary Guard; and are to be recruited to 1000 Men each. The Governour of Pampelona who had been some time at this Court, is by Order of the King return'd thither: We have receiv'd Advice that the Marquis de Leganez is arriv'd there. The Persons principally concern'd in the Conspiracy lately discover'd at Grenada are brought hither, among them Father Francisco Sanchez, and some other Clergy-men that are suspected of having had a hand in that Plot. They will be tried by their proper Judges. Some of their Accomplices have been executed at Grenada. The Letters from Estramadura advise, that the Earl of Gallway has put his Troops into Quarters in Portugal; And those from Ciudad Rodrigo say, the Marquis das Minas has put his Forces into Pennamacor and other Places thereabouts; because of the excessive Heats. It was rumour'd some Days ago, that the Enemy's Fleet had appear'd in sight of Cadix; but there was no Ground for it, and we have no News of their having been seen yet upon the Coasts of Spain. However, the Governour of Cadix takes all necessary Precaution, to secure that Place and the Neighbouring Coast, from being insulted by the Enemy.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 16.

Madrid, June 26. 2000 Foot arriv'd lately at Barcelona from Naples: They are to stay there till 'tis seen where the Storm will fall with which we are threatened by the confederate Fleet. The 4000 Men which the Estates of Galicia have undertaken to raise for the King's Service, are to be divided into 8 Regiments of 500 Men each: These Levies are begun with Success, and 'tis pretended they will be compleat by next Month; and also the other Troops that are raising in other Provinces of the Kingdom. The Marquis de Leganez is confin'd in the Castle of Pampelona. 'Tis the Opinion of many People, that the Conspiracy that Nobleman is charg'd with, is nothing but a Pretence for securing his Person, upon a bare Suspicion of his being well affected to the House of Austria; the rather because we hear no further talk of the many Persons said to be come hither from Portugal, under Colour of Deserting, to assist in the Execution of that Conspiracy.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 16.

Bergamo, July 3. The first Instant there was an Engagement in sight of this Place, between a Party of German Horse and the Spanish Foot that march'd from Palazzuolo, under General Toralba and the Count de Louvignies, to retire to Leco by the way of our Mountains: In the first Shock about 12 or 14 Men on both sides fell, but the German Horse were oblig'd to retire; which gave the Spaniards Time to march by the Way of Lazaret, and post themselves on a Hill. Towards the Evening, arriv'd 3000 more German Horse, who pursu'd the Spaniards with all Expedition, whilst another Detachment went about by our Suburbs Westward, with design to surround the Spaniards. They were posted 7 or 800 Paces Northwards from our Walls: The Germans attack'd them, but were oblig'd to give back 5 or 6 times, by the great Fire made upon them: About Midnight the Imperial Foot having join'd their Horse, the Spaniards were again attack'd, with so great Vigour, that General Toralba was forc'd to yield himself Prisoner of War, with 4 or 500 of his Officers and Soldiers. The Count de Louvignies fled to our Mountains with the rest, and thence into the Milaneze. The Imperialists are gone to Palazzuolo with their Prisoners and a great Booty, with Design to attack the Castle there, in which the Spaniards left but 200 Men.

Milan, July 4. Part of the Imperial Army under Prince Eugene is advanc'd to the Adda, and has taken Post at Canonica; while another Body is march'd to Soncino, to endeavour to seize the great Magazines the French have laid up there. We are very apprehensive Prince Eugene will come hither, and the Prince of Vaudemont our Governour General has already caus'd 5 of the Gates of this City to be wall'd up, and has posted some Militia Troops to guard the others, waiting for the Succours the Duke of Vendome is bringing from Piemont. A Report is just now spread, that the Imperial Army under Prince Eugene has pass'd the Adda at Canonica.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated July 14.

Sluys in Flanders, July 9. Two Days ago 5 Gallies of Dunkirk and Ostend, with 30 Rowers in each and 200 Land-Soldiers, came to make a Descent upon the Island of Cazand, or the Country of Walcken; but the Enemy perceiving the Inhabitants were prepar'd to receive them, they retir'd without attempting any thing.

Portsmouth, July 11. This Day came in Her Majesty's Ship the Centurion, and under her Convoy a retaken Ship from Jamaica, last from Dartmouth. There came in also three Dutch Men of War, to Convoy home the Lisbon and St. Ubes Fleet for Holland.

Harwich, July 12. This Morning the Postillion arriv'd here from Hull, with a Fleet of Merchant Ships under her Convoy, that pass'd by with a fair Wind for the River. The Prince-Pacquet Boat sail'd from hence, with a Mail for Holland.

Remarks upon Mr. Clark's Sermons Preach'd at St. Paul's against Hobbs, Spinoza, and other Atheists, wherein is demonstrated: 1. That Mr. C. by the Sceptical Hypothesis he employs, absolutely cuts off all possible Means of knowing the Nature, or of proving the Existence of the one only True God against Hobbs, Spinoza, or any other Atheist whatever. 2. That in Reference to God, or Spirits, he reduces Humane Understanding, to the most Incurable State of Scepticism. These Two Particulars are handled and prov'd Geometrically. 3. The Reasons are produced which convince the Author of this Paper, that those Sermons do rather Establish than Destroy, do rather Confirm than Confute Spinoza's Hypothesis, &c. Printed for Jonathan Robinson at the Golden Lion in St. Paul's Church-yard. Price Sixty 6.
